

South Africa's Children Book Fair

2016

Finally!
A book fair specially created for children.

Theme: Back to basics, bring back the culture of reading!

A Book for Every Child Foundation invites Publishers, Writers, Book sellers, comic strip writers, Illustrators, Librarians and other interested parties to participate in its inaugural children's book fair. The Book fair is a platform where the love of reading will be fostered. This annual event will also be a harvesting ground for writers of children's books, publishers, and illustrators.

Events will include

Book launches • Seminars • Presentations • Book Sales • Children's Competitions
• Informative debates with the country's experts and many more!
